

Ballet Studio earns top honors

Dancers from The Ballet Studio advanced to a competition in Anaheim, California after participating in a regional competition in April.

Students from The Ballet Studio competed at the Kids Artistic Revue dance competition in April at the War Memorial in Trenton. Kids Artistic Revue is a regional competition.

The juniors and seniors danced together to music from "Cats," winning Elite Top First Place. Several of the studio's solo, duet and small group dancers received the highest scores in the categories, as well as earning the Most Entertaining award and the Broadway Bound award for their performance called "Matilda."

The Ballet Studio, located in the Karadis Plaza on Route 130 North, is currently in its 45th year of business. Classes include tap, ballet, jazz, musical theater, hip-hop, lyrical and pointe. New for this fall are Mommy and Me classes, set for Saturday mornings.

Registration is currently open for all new students. For more information, visit tbsdance.com or call (609) 298-5396.
